DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. The following is just one example of the many indefiniteness issues: claim 1, line 16 as numbered, the phrase "the hooks of the computer casing" does not have a proper antecedent basis.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Pending further consideration, Claims 1-2 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action [clarification of the indefinite language while maintaining all the claimed limitations].

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Lee et al., Lai, Radloff et al., Hulick et al., Buican et al., EPO publication 425170, and Chen et al., describe computer housings with removable front covers.
